Complaints by investors of Kislay Plantation

2699. SHRI GAYA SINGH: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Police Commissioner of Delhi had received complaints from the investors of Kislay Plantation Ltd. on 17th August, 1998 and 14th September, 1998 of being cheated by the company;

(b) if so, what action has been taken by the police in this regard; and

(c) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) A case under section 420 IPC had been already registered at on 5th August, 1998 against M/s Kislay Plantation Ltd. on the basis of a complaint lodged by one of the investors. However, the case was later transferred to the Crime Branch of Delhi Police for thorough investigation.

Spurt in Crime in the NCR

2700. SHRI AKHILESH DAS: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether there has been a marked spurt in crimes in Uttar Pradesh, Haryana, Delhi and Rajasthan, especially in the so-called 'Wild West of UP' and areas in and around the Capital during the last six months;

(b) if so, the crime figures, showing crime against women, kidnapping, robberies, dacoities and murders during each of these months; and

(c) the steps taken by Government and the concerned States to curb the crime in the National Capital Region and the States indicating the number of such crime cases solved?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI): (a) to (c) Available information in regard to incidents of crime against women, kidnapping, robbery, dacoity and murder in Haryana, Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh and Delhi during the period January, 1998 to June, 1998 is given in the enclosed statement. (see below).

'Public Order' and 'Police' are State subjects as per the Constitution of India. As such the registration, investigation and detection of crimes as well as the prevention of crimes are primarily the responsibility of the State Governments. However, the Central Government has been providing financial assistance to the State Governments for improving their policing infrastructure. The Central Government also shares intelligence with the State Governments and sends them advisories from time to time.

According to information received from the NCT of Delhi, a number of steps/masures have been taken by the Delhi Police to curb crimes. These measures include, inter alia, intensification of beat patrolling, surveillance over activities of known criminals, raids over places of ill-repute and suspected hideouts of criminals and improved intelligence gathering, including exchange of information about criminals through periodic Inter-State Crime Coordination meetings.

Statement

Incidence of Kidnapping, Abduction, Robbery, Dacoity, Murder and Crime Committed Against Women, In Haryana, Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh and Delhi During January to June, 1998.
